

PIEDMONT LITHIUM TO PARTICIPATE IN RANGE OF UPCOMING INDUSTRY CONFERENCES

Company to provide update on pathway to first production at North American Lithium, selection of United States Department of Energy grant, and other key milestones

BELMONT, NC, October 26, 2022 – Piedmont Lithium (“Piedmont” or “Company”) (Nasdaq:PLL; ASX:PLL), a leading global developer of lithium resources critical to the U.S. electric vehicle (“EV”) supply chain, today announced participation in the following upcoming industry conferences:

- ThinkEquity Investor Conference in New York City on October 26
- Gabelli 46th Annual Automotive Symposium in Las Vegas from October 31 to November 1
- Red Cloud Financial Services Fall Mining Showcase in Toronto on November 9
- Benchmark Week 2022 in Los Angeles from November 14 to November 18
- Citi Basic Materials Conference in New York City from November 29 to November 30
- Deutsche Bank’s Annual Lithium Conference in New York City on December 7
- Bank of America’s Virtual Lithium Day on December 8

“We are excited to speak with the investor community as we continue to advance our projects toward production,” said Piedmont Lithium President and CEO, Keith Phillips. “While we are making good progress on all our projects, we are especially excited with the prospect of first production at North American Lithium in the first half of 2023 and are pleased to have been selected as a DOE grant recipient for Tennessee Lithium to help accelerate domestic production for critical supply chain resources.”

Piedmont is advancing a global portfolio of projects with planned first production anticipated as follows:

- 2023: Quebec – spodumene concentrate production at Sayona Quebec’s North American Lithium
- 2024: Ghana – spodumene concentrate production at Atlantic Lithium’s Ewoyaa Lithium Project
- 2025: Tennessee Lithium – lithium hydroxide production from spodumene concentrate sourced from our international investments
- 2026: Carolina Lithium – integrated spodumene concentrate and lithium hydroxide production

About Piedmont Lithium

Piedmont Lithium (Nasdaq:PLL; ASX:PLL) is developing a world-class, multi-asset, integrated lithium business focused on enabling the transition to a net zero world and the creation of a clean energy economy in North America. Our goal is to become one of the largest lithium hydroxide producers in North America by processing spodumene concentrate produced from assets where we hold an economic interest. Our projects include our Carolina Lithium and Tennessee Lithium projects in the United States and partnerships in Quebec with Sayona Mining (ASX:SYA) and in Ghana with Atlantic Lithium (AIM:ALL; ASX:A11). These geographically diversified operations will enable us to play a pivotal role in supporting America's move toward energy independence and the electrification of transportation and energy storage.
